

contents

AUTUMN 2007
VOL. 11 NO. 1

Centre for Addiction and Mental Health
Centre de toxicomanie et de santé ment.

Editor: HEMA ZBOGAR
Executive Editor: DAVID GOLDBLUM
Creative Services Co-ordinator:
NANCY LEUNG
Print Production Co-ordinator:
CHRISTINE HARRIS

Editorial: 416 595-6714
Fax: 416 593-4694
Advertising: 416 595-6714
Subscriptions: 1 800 661-1111
or 416 595-6059 in Toronto

Issued four times a year.

Annual subscriptions are $16.00 in Ontario ($8.03 for Ontario student seniors, patients, clients, consumer and family members), $26.70 in Canada and $36.95 in the U.S. and internationally (include shipping and handling and taxes).

Published by the Program Development
Department
CENTRE FOR ADDICTION AND MENTAL HEALTH
A WHO/WHO Collaborating Centre
Affiliated with the University of Toronto

Autumn 2007
Vol. 11 No. 1
ISSN: 1481-3122

ALEXA BAGNELL, assistant professor,
Department of Psychiatry, Dalhousie
University, Halifax, Nova Scotia
NANCY BLACK, manager, Mental Health and Addiction Services,
Sister Margaret Smith Centre,
Thunder Bay, Ontario
GLORIA CHAIM, deputy clinical director,
Child, Youth and Family Program,
Centre for Addiction and Mental Health, Toronto, Ontario
GERRY COOPER, manager, Northern Ontario Area, Centre for Addiction and Mental Health, Sudbury, Ontario
COLLEEN ANNE DELL, senior research associate, Canadian Centre on Substance Abuse, Ottawa, Ontario
MARILYN HERIE, project director, TEACH,
Centre for Addiction and Mental
Health, Toronto, Ontario
HELEN HOOK, co-ordinator,
Consumer/Survivor Information
Resource Centre of Toronto
ANDREA KEEN, communications manager, Coast Mental Health,
Vancouver, British Columbia
PAT SANAGAN, health promotion consultant, Southampton, Ontario
ASEEFA SARANG, co-director,
Administration, Across Boundaries,
Toronto, Ontario
LORIE SHEKTER-WOLFSON, dean, Faculty of Community Services and Health Sciences, George Brown College,
Toronto, Ontario
JOHN TRAINOR, director, Community
Support and Research Unit,
Centre for Addiction and Mental
Health, Toronto, Ontario
CORNELIA WIEMAN, psychiatrist,
Indigenous Health Research
Development Program, Toronto,
Ontario

[www.camh.net/publications/
Cross_Currents/index.html](http://www.camh.net/publications/Cross_Currents/index.html)

©2007 Centre for Addiction
and Mental Health

#357

Focus Collaborative care Building partnerships with primary care providers

8 Collaborative care works How to make it happen

10 Opening the lines of communication Mentoring network supports family physicians

12 Sharing addiction care Primary care settings move to the forefront of treatment

14 Collaborative care one-on-one A nursing perspective

16 Taking care to the streets Shared care teams reach out to people who are homeless

17 Working together for kids Child and youth collaborative care in action

18 Q&A Common questions about family health teams

My Roots Are Deep, Lynne Jenkins, acrylic on canvas, 15" x 15"

Lynne is a self-taught artist and has been painting for 15 years. She works in every medium but prefers acrylic. Lynne identifies nature by colour and the energy of it.

In Every Issue

1 Note from the editor / A view from CAMH

2 Profile
Program leverages technology to increase medication safety

News
3 Depression: It's different for men
4 Province-wide evaluation identifies challenges and successes in providing women-specific substance use treatment

6 Research Update
alcohol and neighbourhood disorder link to partner violence / anger compatible with rational thinking / gender and income affect brain development / parents as source of alcohol for adolescents / parental substance abuse linked to children's anxiety disorders / psychiatry residents and informed consent / smoking linked to depression

19 Reviews
Dialectical Behavior Therapy with Suicidal Adolescents / Downloaded

20 The Last Word
Is collaborative care moving forward?

21 Conferences

